A note from Pastor Owen...

"As we begin a new year, it is good to remind ourselves that the Evangel – the Good News, is for sharing. We can't keep it within ourselves. In order to keep it, we must give it away! Speaking in tongues is not the evidence of being baptized in the Holy Spirit. Speaking in tongues is the consequence of being filled. The evidence of the baptism of the Spirit is 'witnessing'. Acts 1:8 reminds us of this. 'But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you and you will be my witnesses'. The reason people do not share is because they have nothing to share. The minute the Holy Spirit invades us and becomes personal, we begin to share it with our spouses, our family, our colleagues and our circle of friends. We become contagious when the Spirit comes upon us. We don't have to pretend to be excited about Jesus...we just are. E. Stanley Jones, in his book, Mastery, said it best...'Know me...receive me...illustrate me...give me'. The first is to know Him as your personal Saviour and Lord. The second is to receive the Spirit's daily infilling into your heart. The third is to illustrate Him...to become a little Jesus if you would. And the fourth is to give Him...to witness of His love and to share Him with others."
