A note from Pastor Owen...

"Jesus said to His disciples, "Blessed are the eyes that see what you see" (Luke 10:23-24). The disciples were blessed because with their eyes they beheld the Desire of the Ages. They gazed at the Redeemer of the world. We can say the same to ourselves. We are blessed because we have the Saviour living within our hearts. We are blessed because we walk with the Lord and He never misdirects. To our heart we can say "Blessed are you" because we have known a love that does not disappoint. To our entire spirit, soul and body, we can say, You are blessed because you have given yourself to One who knows you entirely and loves you completely! To our future we can say, You are blessed because the God who guides us will provide for us. To our whole being we can say, Our lives are blessed for He makes us blessed. Everything is blessed because of Him. Blessed and happy are you, Child of God, because you know the One who loves you and gave Himself for you."
