A note from Pastor Owen...

"The Lord is the everlasting God...He does not faint or grow weary...He gives power to the faint and to him who has no might, he increases strength" (Isaiah 40:28-31). Oswald Chambers reminds us that the Lord Jesus 'saved and sanctified us in order to exhaust us'. Exhaustion comes through service to Christ. If you are Spirit-filled and surrendered to God, you will soon have people wanting you to counsel them and pray for them. They will bring their problems to you to solve. They will want you to save their marriage, share your wisdom and rescue their kids. When you make yourself wholly available to God, you will soon find yourself overwhelmed by people wanting you to help them. Feeling exhausted from meeting people's needs? Great! This is how it should be. Now, plug yourself into the Power Source. Draw your life and energy and vitality from Christ Himself. Remember that your supply comes from the Lord. He alone does not faint or grow weary. Jesus saved you in order for you to be exhausted. The depressed, the discouraged and the downhearted will deplete your strength. But for this you were born! Put your spiritual pipe down into bedrock. Let the fresh waters of the Holy Spirit fill you and renew you. Read Isaiah 40:28-31 aloud and allow yourself to 'mount up with wings as eagles'."
