A note from Pastor Owen...

"The Lord has encouraged me of late to put more emphasis in my life on 'relying on the Holy Spirit.' I'm grateful to the Lord for impressing my heart in this manner. This is the age of the Spirit. The promise of the Father has been fulfilled. All of God's children can receive the Holy Spirit and be filled with His strength and power. Many people know a certain amount about God the Father and Jesus the Son, but very little about 'life in the Spirit.' The Holy Spirit makes a difference in our lives...He transforms us! The Holy Spirit brings life to people and to churches. We can easily get dry and dusty in our spiritual lives. Churches can get dry and dusty too! But when the Holy Spirit empowers and refreshes, we find we have new enthusiasm for the Bible, for prayer and for sharing our faith. Our hearts become ablaze with Christ. The life and joy of Jesus fills us and people are drawn to us. Many are hungry for life and are attracted to people and churches where they see the life of the Spirit of God. God wants to fill (and refill!) every one of us with His Spirit. Be open to this new dimension...this is the age of the Spirit!"
