A note from Pastor Owen...

"I've often wondered... Why in the world did God make it possible to 'speak in tongues'? Paul explains simply, 'He who speaks in tongues edifies (builds up) himself' (1 Cor. 14:4). How wonderful! God has given the church languages, enabled by the Holy Spirit, so that a person can speak mysteries to God and build himself up. No wonder Paul wished that all people spoke in tongues. The strongest part of speaking in tongues is that you don't form the words in your mind before you speak...you speak and hear the words that you are saying. Tongues is the consequence of the baptism in the Holy Spirit. It's part of the package. The evidence of the baptism in the Holy Spirit is not tongues, but an empowering to better serve God. Remember, Jesus is the baptizer in the Holy Spirit. Just ask Him to do it and He will (Luke 11:11-13)
