

A note from Pastor Owen...

E. Stanley Jones, the American missionary, points out accurately that a Holy Spirit-less Christianity is a devitalized Christianity...It is sub-Christian. Jesus's distinctive baptism is the baptism of the Holy Spirit and power. We need inner reinforcement. We need the baptism of the Holy Spirit to effectively live this life. Jesus never baptized people with water. He saved himself to give the baptism of the Holy Spirit. In the baptism with water we surrender our sins. In the baptism of the Spirit we surrender ourselves. One is negative, the other is positive. In surrendering ourselves we put ourselves at the Spirit's disposal. Empty of self...filled with the Spirit. That's God's plan.
