

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

Many people look upon doing God's will as being somehow against them, only to discover that God is on their side and very much for them! We need not be afraid of God's will. It is something to be embraced with joy. God's will is an instrument of His love and can bring us only the kindest and best of all that God has for us. God's will for our lives is a "good will" since He has no other kind! No greater bliss could come to us than to have His lovely unselfish will done in our lives. Hannah Whitall Smith encourages us to "hide ourselves" in God's will in an impregnable fortress of love and care! "The reason heaven is heaven", writes Whitall-Smith, "is because God's will is perfectly done there!" Many think that finding God's will is a high religious attainment that only a few spiritual saints can reach...not so...God wants everyone to know His will. He doesn't hide His will and expect us to find it like the Easter bunny and the eggs. Surrender to God is the greatest privilege a human can know. "Thy will be done" is our shout of victory. "Here I am, Lord...Thy will be done. Guide me and direct me, oh Lord...Thy will be done. Here I am, Lord...I give myself to you. Thy will be done! Amen!"
