

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

Hebrews 10:25 tells us not to forsake the “assembling of ourselves together”. The Lord puts much importance on His people gathering together. God’s presence is manifested in a much stronger way when we come together than when we are by ourselves. We can know His presence in a personal way by ourselves, but his most powerful and overwhelming presence is known only in the assembling together. When we assemble, we do not go to hear a sermon, but rather to meet the Lord face to face. Paul says, “If therefore the whole church be assembled together” (1 Corinthians 14:23-26), someone has a psalm, someone else brings a teaching, another has fresh insight or a scripture, someone else gives a message in tongues with an interpretation and so on. It is obvious from scripture that when we “gather together” in Jesus’ Name, God’s special grace falls on the gathering of believers and much encouragement is received. No one who belongs to Valley Church ought to keep him/herself away from the weekly gatherings. It is very crucial you be here. God’s light is manifested in full splendor when we all come together. The age is drawing to a close. The devil knows his time is short and so darkness and evil will increase more and more. For this reason, dear saints, make every effort to attend the Sunday celebration and midweek gathering. These are not just things the church puts on. They are divinely ordained life-giving moments that God has ordered to teach, equip and encourage His people with. Maranatha!
