

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

In Matthew 5:14 Jesus tells us that we are the “light of the world”. When you draw near to a person who lives close to God, you feel their presence. The person does not make you sense how gentle and humble they are...they make you sense the Lord! No one can work for God without carrying God’s light. How can our friends and relatives and co-workers be brought closer to God unless our light shines on them? Author, Watchman Nee, in his book, “Spiritual Knowledge, suggests that if one lives close to God, you will be governed by God’s light and will automatically reveal the true condition of people around us with their various needs. Our prayer...”Dear Lord, may I daily walk in your light as you are in the light Amen”.

Valley Church...

There’s a place for you!
