

A note from Pastor Owen Scott...

Oswald Chambers says "if your relationship with Jesus is right, then whatever circumstances you are in, and whoever you meet day by day, He is pouring rivers of living water through you and it is of His mercy that He does not let you know it. When once you are related to God by salvation and sanctification, remember that wherever you are, you are put there by God; and by the reaction of your life on the circumstances around you, you will fulfill God's purpose, as long as you keep in the light as God is in the light."

Our union with Jesus produces a "unified life". As we live in oneness with Christ, He expresses his life through us. He touches our world. All of life becomes holy. All things are done for God's glory. Our life takes on a deep sense of purpose and meaning. It is truly "life lived at its best".
