

A note from Pastor Owen...

While I was visiting a dying man in the hospital I listened to the ill man's pastor minister to him. The pastor shared this thought..."If the pages of your Bible are falling apart, you can be certain that you won't be". How wonderfully true. Many times our emotions fail us when we find ourselves overwhelmed with life's trials. But for the man or woman who knows God's Word, there is a calm and a peace in the midst of the most severe trial. It is the scriptures that ground us. It is crucial that we know God's Book from cover to cover. Faith comes by hearing and hearing from the Word of God (Romans 10:17). I frequently find myself turning to the scriptures for comfort, hope and direction. That pastor was right...if the pages of my Bible aren't falling apart, I will be.
